CIRCULAR.

SALEM FEMALE ACADEMY,
FEBRUARY 20th, 1864.

In order to prevent misunderstanding of every kind I would hereby give notice that no more C. S. Treasury notes, of the present issue, will be received in payment of accounts due our Institution. Patrons are therefore requested to make no more remittances until the new issues can be obtained.

Since the passage of the "Currency Bill" Confederate notes do not pass current here and are therefore useless to me.—Should any funds arrive after the date of this circular, I will hold them subject to the order of the parties sending them, and either have them funded for the benefit of such parties at the nearest C. S. Depository, or send them back per Express, as they may direct.

Very Respectfully,

ROB'T DRSCHWEINITZ.
